

Stages of Development

If your child seems to fit into 2 or 3 categories, then choose the one that is the lowest on the ladder. This will enable them to build the skills that will help them progress up the ladder. The next stage of development may not need extra training once the foundations are in place.

